

15

Phrases

For Asking And Telling Time

Phrases For Asking Time

- What time is it?
- Do you have the time?
- Could you tell me the time, please?
- May I ask what time it is?
- Would you mind letting me know the time?

enricheng.com

Phrases For Telling Time

- It's [insert time here].
- The time is [insert time here].
- It's [insert minutes] past [insert hour].
- The time now is [insert time here].
- It's just after [insert hour].
- We're approaching [insert hour] o'clock.
- It's a quarter past [insert hour].
- The time is almost [insert hour].
- It's half past [insert hour].
- We're coming up on [insert hour].

20 Sentences To Talk About Time

- Time flies by so fast.
- I'm running out of time.
- I need to manage my time better.
- Time is precious.
- Time heals all wounds.
- I'm looking forward to spending some quality time with my family.
- Time and tide wait for no man.
- Time is money.
- It's time to move on.
- Time is of the essence.
- I'm pressed for time.
- I'm taking my time with this project.
- Time stands still when I'm with you.
- Time is a great teacher.
- Time seems to be dragging on today.
- Time to get down to business.
- Time is running out for us to finish this task.
- Time is the ultimate judge.
- Time can be a cruel mistress.
- There's never enough time in the day.

enricheng.com

